

DRINKING AND DINING EXPERIENCES

GRAND HOTEL MAJESTIC GIÀ BAGLIONI

Savour La Dolce Vita among terraces, art and timeless locations

Bologna's only five-star luxury hotel has opened its wonderful terraces to enhance its bar and restaurant offering.

Terrazza Torre and Terrazza Foyer will welcome you with the wonderfully heady scent of jasmine and the sublime sensation of being lost in time. These open air spaces are perfect places to spend some time in total relaxation, while enjoying an aperitif or simply appreciating the sound of silence.

The Art Deco Suite, with its 70sqm terrace offers a truly unique, previously unseen, panoramic view of the red roofs of the city and its surrounding hills and, when the sun goes down, the Terrace is transformed into the most evocative and exclusive stage for a romantic dinner under the stars. This unique location can also be reserved for private cocktails and events.

If you prefer art masterpieces, the Grand Hotel Majestic 'già Baglioni' provides another splendid reason to spend an evening gazing up, while savouring the gourmet delights of Ristorante I Carracci: its original, frescoed, 16th century ceiling, depicting the myth of Phaethon crashing after being struck by Zeus' lightning bolt.

Finally, why not try a wine tasting dinner in a 15th Century Cellar? The historic and prestigious wine cellar of the Grand Hotel Majestic già Baglioni, now boasts the new 'Enoteca Morandi' – dedicated to one of twentieth century Italy's most important painters and printmakers, Bologna's own Giorgio Morandi.

This exclusive location offers a comprehensive selection of more than 300 finest quality Italian and international wines, and offers an exceptional and unique alternative for private food and wine tastings with the Grand Hotel Majestic's sommelier, in an authentic historical, yet friendly and informal atmosphere – not to mention the five-star service!
