RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL: A CONSCIOUS APPROACH TO TOURISM

Traveling is one of the most enriching experiences, but the freedom to discover new places should imply the responsibility of respecting them. As a responsible tourist, you have the power to make a difference by protecting natural resources, supporting local economies, and promoting a culture of respect and mutual exchange.

Respect the environment

OUR PLANET IS FRAGILE AND EVERY ACTION WE MAKE HAS AN IMPACT. WHEN YOU VISIT NATURAL DESTINATIONS:

* — Reduce waste

Bring with you a reusable water bottle and eco-friendly bags. Dispose of waste properly.

* — Avoid single-use plastics

Choose sustainable and reusable alternatives.

* — Respect local Wildlife and Flora

Do not disturb animals, do not pick plants or flowers, and leave no trace of your visit.

Sustain Local Economy

TOURISM CAN BE AN IMPORTANT
RESOURCE FOR MANY COMMUNITIES

* — Buy local products

Choose handicrafts, food and souvenirs that come from the region you are visiting.

* — Eat in local restaurants

Choose sustainable and reusable alternatives.

* — Hire local guides

Who better than them can help you in discovering the true essence of the destination?

Respect Cultures and Traditions

EACH PLACE HAS ITS OWN HISTORY, CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS

* — Inform yourself

Before departing, learn about local customs and cultural norms and make an effort to respect them.

* — Be open to cultural exchange

Learn a few words in the local language and interact respectfully with the community.

* — Avoid Disrespectful behaviour

Photograph people and sacred places only with permission, and wear appropriate clothing when visiting religious sites.

Protect Cultural Patrimony

MONUMENTS, HISTORICAL AND WORLD HERITAGE SITES ARE SHARED TREASURES

*— Do not vandalize or damage

monuments and works of art.

*— Follow visiting rules

each site has regulations that must be respected to ensure its preservation.

*— Do not take pieces of history as souvenirs

each one is part of a larger story that must be preserved for future generations.

Travel Sustainably

REDUCING THE ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT OF YOUR TRIP IS POSSIBLE

* — Choose Eco-friendly transportation

When possible, choose to travel in train or bus instead of airplane.

* — Reduce CO2 emissions

If you must fly, consider offsetting your emissions by choosing airlines that invest in sustainability projects.
